To whom it may concern:

The Ascension Parish School Board has had a long time relationship with Golden Rule Signs. Golden Rules Signs is highly recommended for their professional and customer friendly service. I would highly recommend them for any sign projects you may have. They are an outstanding company to deal with. Our signs have always been manufactured with the highest quality standards in the business. Their signs are made of high quality materials, always delivered on time, best warranty in the business, and their customer service and sales persons are the best in the business. They have no problem addressing any problem or question you may have. I would not recommend using anyone else but Golden Rules Signs.
